God Sends a Helper
Acts 2

Before Jesus went back to heaven, He told His disciples that they should go all over the world to tell people all about Jesus and what He taught them. Jesus told them that Someone would come to them to help them first, and they needed to wait for Him. The Holy Spirit, who is God, was going to come help them.

The Holy Spirit is called the Helper. He helps God's children talk with God and understand the Bible, and the Holy Spirit was going to come to help Jesus' disciples obey God and tell everyone all about Jesus! God is Good, and He was coming to help His people.

The disciples obeyed Jesus and were waiting for the Helper to come to them. On a day called Pentecost, He came into the house where Jesus' followers were waiting. When He came the house was filled with a sound like a mighty wind. Then fire appeared above them in the house, but it didn't hurt them! The Helper came to them in a special way and did special things. He came to help everyone who loves and trusts Jesus and started helping Jesus' followers right away!

The people started speaking in lots of languages that they didn't know before! People in the town heard them talking and recognized the languages. "And they were amazed and astonished, saying, '...how is it that we hear, each of us in his own native language?'" (Acts 2:7-8) They were amazed that the disciples were speaking a whole lot of different languages!

The Helper came and the disciples were able to tell other people about Jesus in many languages! Remember, Jesus told the disciples to wait for the Helper and then to go all over the world telling people that God is Good. Jesus' followers started telling people about God as soon as the Helper came!

God is Good! Jesus came to heal hearts that are sick with sin and give healthy hearts to all who love and trust Him. And the Holy Spirit comes to help Jesus' followers. He helps them know they are sinners, pray, understand the Bible, and share the truth about God with others! God is Good!
